

“Customs declaration” means the act whereby a person indicates in the prescribed form and manner, a wish to place goods under a given customs procedure, with an indication, where appropriate, of any specific arrangements to be applied.

(Article 5(12) of the UCC refers)

“Customs legislation” means the body of legislation made up of all of the following:

- a) the Code and the provisions supplementing or implementing it adopted at Union or national level;
- b) the Common Customs Tariff;
- c) the legislation setting up a Union system of reliefs from customs duty;
- d) international agreements containing customs provisions, insofar as they are applicable to the Union.

(Article 5(2) of the UCC refers)

“Customs office of exit” generally is the last customs office before the goods leave the customs territory of the Union. However, the customs office of exit may also be one of the following:

1. Except where paragraphs 2 to 7 apply, the customs office of exit shall be the customs office competent for the place from where the goods leave the customs territory of the Union for a destination outside that territory.
2. In the case of goods leaving the customs territory of the Union by fixed transport installation, the customs office of exit shall be the customs office of export.
3. Where the goods are loaded on a vessel or an aircraft for carriage to a destination outside the customs territory of the Union, the customs office of exit shall be the customs office competent for the place where the goods are loaded onto such vessel or aircraft.
4. Where the goods are loaded onto a vessel that is not assigned to a regular shipping service, the customs office of exit shall be the customs office competent for the place where the goods are loaded onto such vessel.
5. Where, after having been released for export, goods are placed under an external transit procedure, the customs office of exit shall be the customs office of departure of the transit operation.
6. Where, after having been released for export, goods are placed under a transit procedure other than the external transit procedure, the customs office of exit shall be the customs office of departure of the transit operation provided that either of the following conditions is fulfilled:
 - (a) the customs office of destination of the transit operation is situated in a common transit country;
 - (b) the customs office of destination of the transit operation is situated at the border of the customs territory of the Union and the goods are taken out of that customs territory, after having passed through a country or territory outside the customs territory of Union.
