

that delay in making a report/reporting incorrectly is not deliberate or is due to unavoidable causes, the explanation may be accepted. In other cases, including refusal to answer questions relating to the ship, voyage, etc., the facts are to be reported to the relevant Assistant Principal without delay.

The following material is either exempt from or not required to be published under the Freedom of Information Act 2014.

[...]

See paragraph 3.4 of the Customs Manual on Import VAT for details on exemption from VAT in relation to the temporary importation of certain vessels. See the Temporary Importation Manual in relation to exemption from import charges on temporary importation.