

8 Exports by Post

8.1 General

Goods not liable to duty are considered to have been presented to customs, the declaration accepted, and release granted when the goods are accepted by An Post. An Post is also responsible for supplying returns to the Central Statistics Office. Although Revenue generally has no direct involvement in the enforcement of export controls on goods exported by post, officers may become involved with such traffic where evidence of exportation is required or if specific investigations are required e.g., request from third country authority to check on postal consignments destined for that country.

8.2 Law

Letters, and parcel post not exceeding €1,000 and not liable to export duties are considered to have been declared to Revenue for export by their exit from the Union. Goods in postal consignments exceeding €1,000 in value require a customs export declaration.

(Article 141(2) and (4) of the UCC DA refers)

AES changes: Since March 2023, exporters or their agents may declare consignments at export by lodging an electronic customs declaration to Revenue using Revenue's new electronic Automated Export System (AES). More information on AES can be found here.

8.3 Procedure for postal exports

8.3.1 General

Under International Postal Agreements all packages sent to countries outside the EU require a customs declaration. The declaration should include a description of the goods, an indication of their value and whether they are gifts or commercial items. The declaration usually takes the form of a Form CN22 or Form CP72, which is attached to the outside of the package. These forms are available from An Post and are similar to those used by all postal administrations.

8.3.2 Exports by post in cases where evidence of exportation is required.

Goods being exported by post that are intended to be re-imported at a later stage must be produced at a Revenue office to verify their exportation. Examples of such exports would include goods being sent for repair.

Goods, which are being sent for repair for example, must be produced at a Revenue office with a completed Form PO2 (outward processing). Where there is evidence that the goods presented are in free circulation, there are easily distinguishing identifying marks (e.g., serial
